HIS WIFE'S INFIDELITY

Causes a Man to Commit Suicide.

A MOTHER SUICIDES AT HER CHILD'S DEATH.

Fatal Fire in Pittsburg—A Leper at Large—Corbett Retrograding.

Special to the APPEAL

Domestic Troubles.

Lexington, Ky., October 25.—Charles Martin, about 30 years old and very popular, committed suicide yesterday by taking twelve grains of morphine. He went to a newspaper office in the morning and asked a reporter to write a letter to his wife, who left him three weeks ago, taking her three children with her to her mother's home, in Richmond, Ky. He told the reporter that he was going to commit suicide and dictated a letter to his wife, which charged her with unbecoming conduct with Eli Corum of this city, who left his wife about two months ago.

Martin told her in the letter that he wanted the children to attend his funeral tomorrow, and after reiterating his charges of infidelity, bade her good-bye. He then showed the reporter a package marked morphine went home and took the poison. His wife wrote him a letter several weeks ago saying she never intended to live with him again. Martin's friends thing that brooding over his wife's desertion, coupled with the suicide in the same manner of his bosom friend, Dan Shrape, last week, prompted him to kill himself.

Accident and Suicide.

Guadalupe, Cal., Oct. 26.—The youngest child of B. Aglians drank a draught of lye by mistake and died in great agony. The mother became frantic with grief and drank the remainder dying the same way as the child.

Bad Taste.

On the passenger train last evening were a man and his wife; the latter reclining on the former's shoulder. On the platform were gathered several jays, who had the extremely bad taste to pass such remarks, in a loud tone as, "Change cars," "Break away," etc.

Things are coming to a pretty pass when a tired wife can't rest her head on her husband's shoulder without being gayed by a gang of hobos.

Easily Reconciled.

The Tribune has no apologies to make as to its course ten years ago. It roasted him then for standing in with a mugwump organization, but Bartine never bucked his party on national issues as Stewart is now doing.—Tribune.

Now if our readers will carefully read the following they can see that Mr. Bartine was almost beyond redemption in 1882, when the paragraph was published in the Tribune:

What does any honest Republican gain by voting for Bartine? He is neither so good a lawyer, nor so good a citizen, nor so good a scholar, nor so clever a gentleman, nor so true a Republican as his opponent, Mr. Torreyson. Four years ago he was induced to support the ticket, after he had declared his purpose to do otherwise by a bribe of $1,000, and an invitation to canvass the state, and two years ago he was only held within the party lines by the office which he now holds.

Of course, it may be possible to get over some of the above bad traits in 10 years, especially bribery, which the Tribune editor charged Mr. Bartine with, and in 10 more years he may be styled by that journal as a "Modern St. Anthony."

It will be seen by the following platform adopted by the Republicans in Virginia April 30th, that Stewart is only obeying the instructions of his party:

Resolved, That we condemn the Republican party of the Eastern States and the administration of President Harrison insofar as they have failed to accomplish the complete remonetization of silver, and to enact laws providing for the free and unrestricted coinage of that metal.

Resolved, That the restoration of silver to the place it occupied previous to the passage of the Mint Act of 1873 is essential to the prosperity of the country and paramount to all other political considerations.

Resolved, That the people of Nevada are in favor of the coinage of silver upon the same conditions that apply to the coinage of gold, and they are opposed to elevating any person to office who is not known to be unequivocally in favor of opening the Mints of the United States to the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

For Bartine.

The following appeared in 1882, Oct. 28, when Bartine was running for District Attorney, on the Dolly Varden ticket:

[Nevada Tribune, Oct. 28, 1882.] Mr. Bartine has proven himself a renegade of the worst class for ever since he has been a politician he has lived on party pay, and lacking the moral courage to announce himself as a candidate for reelection, he counts the class of people he has so persistently abused. Where is the boasted patriotism of this political hireling? Will be the question put by the people when reason turns and the sophistries formulated by him last evening are exposed. It will be seen that his services can be dispensed with and no loss occur to Ormsby county. The abuse of such a man as Bartine hurts no one, not even the management of the local road, for it is recognized by all who know Mr. B. that if it were desired to silence him it would soon be accomplished.

The above was uttered by the same man who is now advocating Mr. Bartine for U. S. Senator from Nevada. It must be very interesting reading matter for the Republican candidate and it also shows that the Tribune editor is not sincere in his present advocacy of Mr. Bartine. Probably Parkinson has been hit by a sand bag or a sack of some kind and is hypnotized, which of course puts him beyond all power to think for himself and in consequence he is not to blame.

We are sorry to see a man whose great insight and careful thought has placed him at the head of a powerful army of political statisticians, thus stricken down.

Voted for it Naturally.

H. F. Bartine, who has the audacity to solicit Democratic votes, is so prejudiced, little and unforgiving as to mathematize the Confederates who died in a bad and mistaken cause, and refused to join with his craver, better and more magnanimous comrades in decorating the graves of the Union and Confederate dead.—Tribune, Nov. 4, 1882.

Bartine was not content with this, but afterwards went to Washington and there voted for the force bill, a measure compelling the soldiers of the U. S. to take up arms against their fellow men, behind a barricade of ballot boxes in the South. Is this why he voted for the force bill?

Mint Manglings.

Monday from a Mint man—"You Weaver men are tearing the country to hell and all you are doing in supporting him, is to throw the election into the house and Cleveland will be the next President. "Oh you d—m fools."

Tuesday from the same man—"Weaver aint in it. Bet you hundred dollars Weaver only carries Nevada, just pulls through by few votes, rotten politician got no show tall Rah for Harrison."

ALL SORTS.

Mr. Fatton of the City drug store is quite sick.

The funeral of Father Sheridan will take place Friday morning.

Mrs. Schofield is manufacturing a superior brand of tomatoes, at her candy store.

These busy burglars, "Spike" Hennessy and "Kid" McCoy, are still burgling at the old stand. Police!

The attention of the Sheriff is respectfully called to the fact that two noted ex-burglars are at large in this vicinity and are said to be concerned in a plot to crack a safe at the Opera House on Friday evening.

The New York Journal says the hottest place on earth is the southwest of Persia. This is not quite true as the hottest place on earth is Death Valley Cal. where the thermometer stands over 100 degrees for two and three months.

The political pot is boiling and seething in Nevada as it never boiled as it never seethed before. It would be amusing, if it wasn't nauseating, to hear the small fry tadpole politicians kicking and spitting at Senator Stewart and lauding Bartine with the same breath. Bartine to Stewart is like a dung-heap to Mt. Dana.—Jim Townsend.

J. Duty, a traveling photographer has succeeded in securing photographs of the footprints of the mammoth and the man, imbedded in the clay at the State Prison. He has taken such clean cut pictures and entered so carefully into the detail of his subjects that they have never been equaled by any photographer in the State. Copies will soon be on sale.

Sardis Summerfield, the present District Attorney, has never had a decision reversed by a higher court.—News.

Summerfield as a prosecuting attorney for the county of Ormsby has seldom succeeded in getting a decision in the courts against a criminal and in consequence it has never been necessary for litigants to appeal. Furthermore we never knew that Summerfield was in the habit of deciding cases.

The idiots who are trying to change the name of America to that of Columbus ought to be abated. It is well known that an Iceland struck the western continent some years before Christopher was born. If they propose to make any changes, what's the matter with giving the Iceland a whack at the christening. Vesputius was also interested in this quarter of the globe almost the same time Columbus made his big find.

America is a land that every nation on the globe is prepared to salute with respect and it has been two long in use to permit a change.

A sensible appeal is being made by the Knights of Labor Journal to induce members of that grand order of industrials to make this strike effective. This is the appeal:

Workingmen, you have seen how the old kind of striking turns out. Now suppose next November, you try striking at the ballotbox. Or do you think it will still be the part of wisdom to vote as unthinking, unreasoning party hacks vote—for one grand old humbug or the other—and then after it is all done return to your old-time struggle with each other for jobs and then, having got the job, fight with your employer for a little bigger share of what the land and money monopolists leave to be divided between you? You can do just as you like, that's what the ballot's are for.

"Free Speech and Free Silver."

The silver party's educational campaign proves the truth of the maximum quoted above.

It has supplied the speakers for all except one public meeting in Carson thus far this Fall.

Next Saturday evening at the Opera House silver speakers will discuss leading questions of the day—in which we are all deeply interested.
